New Orleans, 1.a., July 1.—Cotton—Spot

New Orleans, I.a., July 1.—Cotton-Spot cotton firm and unchanged; middling, 14%c. Sales on the spot 850 bales. Cotton futures opened quiet and steady, unchanged to 4 points up case were not up to expectations, but week map was unfavorable and caused nervous shorts to cover. With the bureau reprote shorts to cover. With the bureau reprote of containing due at 11 o'clock, and triple boldadys following to-night's closing the buils showed more confidence in the situation.

At the end of the first half hour of trading prices were 395 points up. The market was quiet up to 11 o'clock, the time of the issue of the bureau report on the condition of cotton. At that time prices were 183 points over yesterday's closing. The figures of 887 per cont. were astonishing to the trade, which had based its estimates on an improvement in condition instead of a falling off.

The report caused immediate activity, although the market still preserved its holiday look. Within a few moments the more active months were advanced about 10 points, and in the first twenty minutes of trading the setive months were 17825 points above the level ruling at 11 o'clock, and 19623 points over yesterday's closing. The market soon settled 'ake into holiday duliness, and at noon was '@11 points down from the high prices of the morning, profit taking by scalping longs having caused a reaction.

In the afternoon session solling out by longs was much in evidence, and the greater part of the advance was lost, the market soon and a down of only 167 points at 2 o clock. The lose was steady at a net advance of 287 points. Cotton futures closed steady Closing hids July, 1891.
